JUDGMENT
AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Daniel Ayala-Mora, is hereby sentenced to a term of Probation for a period of TWELVE (12) MONTHS. The term of Probation consists of 12 months on each of Counts 13 and 17 of the 22-Count Indictment, to be served concurrently, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office, General Order 05-02, and General Order 01-05, including the three special conditions delineated in General Order 01-05.
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days from the date of this Order and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
3. Upon the commencement of Probation, the defendant shall participate for a period of 90 days in a home detention program which, at the discretion of the Probation Officer, may include electronic monitoring, GPS, Alcohol Monitoring Unit or automated identification systems and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall maintain a residential telephone line without devices and/or services that may interrupt operation of the monitoring equipment;
4. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of Probation.
5. During the course of Probation, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug and alcohol dependency to the aftercare contractor during the period of Probation, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer.
7. During the period of Probation, the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.

8. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 100 hours of community service, to be served within 12 months, as directed by the Probation Office.
9. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than the defendant's true legal name, nor shall the defendant use, any name other than his true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.
11. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding Court-ordered financial obligation.
12. The defendant shall possess and use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs) that have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of Probation. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices including personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, cellular telephones, and digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers.
13. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and Seizure upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of Probation or unlawful conduct by the defendant. This shall not apply to items used at the employment's site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.
14. The defendant shall submit to a search, at any time, with or without warrant, and by any law enforcement or Probation Officer, of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices media, and effects upon reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of Probation or unlawful conduct by the defendant, or by any Probation Officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $11,606 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. All payments shall be made

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule: Restitution shall be due during the period of Probation at the rate of 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $332, whichever is greater, during the period of Probation. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of Probation.

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in the judgment.

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with codefendants Jack Benjamin Hessiani and James Manuel Herrera for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and the defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victims receive full restitution.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 18-10.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine in addition to restitution.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss all remaining counts as to this defendant only.

The bond is exonerated.

The Court recommends to the U.S. Pretrial & Probation Office that the defendant be permitted to serve the terms of his Probation in Las Vegas, Nevada, where he currently resides. If the U.S. Pretrial & Probation Office determines not to transfer supervision to Las Vegas, Nevada, counsel may file the appropriate application with this Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
